INTRODUCTION

Lead calves are accumulators of dense energy. The dark density of this World, formed by dense energy fields, was created by the Darkness. It is being dissolved.

With the collapse of the civilization of lovelessness, the process of self-destruction of this Humanity culminates. They built it on foundations based on matter, not on Light.

From its rubble emerges the New Humanity. For generations, Cosmic Men and Cosmic Women will establish the Kingdom of Peace in the Golden Age.

The vast majority of Earth's inhabitants have based their existence on material things. They declared war on themselves, on their fellow human beings, on the beings of the Kingdoms of Nature, and on Mother Earth. They did not think, speak, or act like beings of Light. If their existence had been based on Light, they would have received Light. And the Earth would have radiated its potential for Light to the Solar System. It will happen in the Golden Age.

Max Planck, Nobel Prize winner in Physics, intuited the existence of the Force of the Creative Spirit. He admitted to believing in God, but not in the Christian God. He declared: "For me, who has dedicated my entire life to the most rigorous science, what I can say about the results of my research is: There is no such thing as matter, strictly speaking! All matter has its origin, and exists only by virtue of a Force that makes the particles of the atom vibrate and keeps the tiny solar system that is the atom together."

What goes around comes around. The Titanic of the civilization of dis-Love is sinking. We are launching the barges of Love. It is necessary to save everything that can be saved. We instruct to help find the Way Back to the Homeland of Light. Christ, the True One, is the North Star.

1. I Am Jesus, the Christ, the True One, Co-Regent of Infinity.

I address My Word to you through the Regent of the Plane of Love of the Pure Worlds, My Brother and Friend incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz.

He is One with the Father and with Me, in permanent communication with Us through the Inner Word, and through telepathy with the Brothers of the Stars and with Yoshua, His Aide-de-Camp and Spokesperson for the Brothers of the Stars.

Under the name A.D'Hertzáurea, he has been writing and signing Books and Messages with the Word of the Father and Mine, and what has been communicated by the Brothers of the Stars.

He draws knowledge from the Inner Source of BEING. Everything we communicate through him is possible because the words, terms, images, scientific, technical, and cultural concepts, for example, are recorded in his purified brain cells.

If he did not have these records in his brain cells, We would not be able to "press" the images, terms, concepts, and words he expresses in writing or through speech, and no demon can press them.

For your understanding, Alfonso de Adamuz "translates" the internal and telepathic language that the Father, I, and Joshua dictate to him so that those of you who are reading My Words can understand. We also communicate with him through images. The cosmic beings of the Infinite Universe communicate with each other through images.

As Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz, he has not remained silent, nor remains silent, in the face of the deaths, mutilations, destruction of populations and homes, famines, genocides, illnesses, and deaths caused by the so-called "pandemic." Nor is it silent about the deaths and suffering of animals and beings from other Kingdoms of Nature.

Nor is it silent about what the "powerful" of this World has caused with their wars, bombings, and missiles, radioactive and chemical contamination of water, air, and land. Nor is it silent about the continued

"scorched earth" by invisible and incarnated demons of anything that might help the New Humanity survive. What we have read is a sample.

He is protected by Seven Circles of Strength. It would have been better if those who plot his moral assassination, like hired assassins of Darkness, had never been born.

Through Me, Alfonso asks you to send Love to those submerged in the pit of pain and suffering, from which they cannot escape on their own. Send Love also to the souls of those who had family and friends, and were forgotten when they departed to the Beyond.

Those who, knowing what they must practice to Return to the Homeland of Light, await the fall of Israel as a State to wash the dirty laundry accumulated in their souls, do not know how much dirty laundry they have, nor how long the spiritual washing machine will take to clean it.

2. I am Jesus, the Christ, the True One, the Life in you, sons and daughters of God of the Peoples of the Earth.

Through the Regent of the Plane of Love, incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz, I speak to you at this time when what was announced for the future is becoming present.

A New Time is coming, a New World, the New Humanity of the Cosmic Man and the Cosmic Woman, who will establish and populate the Kingdom of Peace throughout the Earth, aided by the true Brothers and Sisters of the Stars.

Come to Me at all times, places, and situations. I know each and every one of you. Reflect when you read My Words.

The lead calves are accumulators of dense energy.
The dark density of this World has been formed by dense energy fields. Therefore, the lead calves have contributed to forming the dark density of this World, created by Darkness.

By penetrating thought, those invisible to the human eye induce the creation and further densification of the lead calves. Thus, the human being influenced by demons is their instrument, consciously or unconsciously. What is not Light is Darkness. There is no other intermediate energy that vibrates between the High vibration frequency of Light and the low frequency range of Darkness.

You have received instructions to transform the dense energies of low vibration frequency into High vibration frequency energy of the BEING. I am the one who elevates to the High vibration frequency the dense energies that you investigate and surrender to Me.

Energy vibrates. It emits and receives at a certain frequency. You know that dense energies emit and receive at a low frequency. Thus, the lead calves emit and receive in the low vibration frequency range. The cosmic Principle EMIT/RECEIVE is inexorable. What is emitted is received by those who emit. Both good, less good, and not good. Wars are lead calves created by demons and their instruments to create scorched earth in their retreat to the Abyss. The rulers of the sphere of Darkness create these lead calves. They rearm their armies and beat the drums of war among their peoples. Their sticks are demagoguery. They will attract multiplied what "they" have thought, said, and done, leading their peoples to ruin. This is what they intend.

Their roadmap includes creating scorched earth for the economy, leading countless human beings to death, and destroying everything that serves the common good of their peoples and other peoples. They are pyromaniac firefighters. But they kept this quiet in the electoral contests. They use the votes from the ballot boxes to seize power. No energy is wasted. The cosmic EMIT/RECEIVE Principle is constantly at work. Fools believe that others are fools. There are proverbs on Earth that confirm this statement.

Citizen-States have constitutional and human rights and freedoms, and duties to fulfill. You are the State.

Many of you, incarnated in families of the Peoples of the Earth, left your Cosmic Homes in the Homeland of Light and on the habitat planets of fifth-dimensional Galaxies to help and serve your brothers and sisters on Earth during the collapse of the civilization of lack of Love, as the Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz so aptly defined it long ago.

Carry in your hearts the incarnated demons who persecute you, those who defame you for what you have not committed, those who have attacked the means and lands for survival contributed and worked with effort for the common good, and those who will come after you to establish and extend the Kingdom of Peace.

Forgive from your heart the demons and demonesses in human bodies who have killed and poisoned your animal brothers. They do not know what they have done and will have to suffer. It would have been better if they had never been born.

Be examples of life, holding high the inextinguishable Flame of the Spiritual Revolution for the sons and daughters of the Infinite who wish to light the torches of their souls within It, to illuminate with its Light the Dark Night that is falling upon Humanity.

You are free to demand that your rulers fulfill the stipulated Social Contract, promised in their electoral programs, signed by them with you through the votes you cast for them at the polls.

This Social Contract was promised verbally and in writing during the electoral contests. It was signed by these rulers with you before the People, and ratified by their electoral programs and the audiovisual productions of the media. And they should fulfill it.

If they don't fulfill it, they lied. They wanted to seize power to achieve hidden ends. If they made these ends public, they wouldn't be voted for. Every individual Social Contract breached by those aspiring to carry out unarmed coups is null and void, for they have violated your constitutional right to be informed fairly and truthfully. Social hostages are deprived of their rights and freedoms.

Appear before the Judges in time. And leave a written record that you may engage in civil disobedience against laws ordered to be complied with by rulers who, by lying, breached the Social Contract signed with you, owners of the votes they obtained by deceiving the People.

Lies have become the norm: they don't deliver on their campaign promises. Masked figures have seized power.

The seats in Parliament are occupied by representatives of the legislative power granted by the Sovereign People. These representatives belong to the same parties as those who govern, issuing directives to the parliamentary seats. Those who taste the fruits of power can legislate and enact laws that legalize unknown purposes, benefit international corporations, and also laws that could harm you as citizens of the State, violating your constitutional and human rights and freedoms. This is already happening.

There are rulers and "representatives" of the People in Parliaments manipulated by those who pull the strings of the puppets behind the curtain of the parliamentary stage.

A parliamentary system ceases to be truly representative if your right to receive objective and truthful information as citizens of the State is violated, and if the members of Parliament elected by the People in your electoral districts do not receive your ideas, proposals, and criticisms.

In this way, you and your parliamentary representatives will be united, forging the common good. First, fulfill your civic duties as citizens of the State to the State, which is you. And then you can justly demand your rights if they are violated.

Your right to information has been violated. It is merely printed words, for the rulers have not established public channels for dissemination where you, the citizens-state, can freely express your ideas, proposals, and criticisms of the rulers who came to power through the votes of the Sovereign People.

Thus, the political class goes one way and the People another. Members of the political class, "representatives" of popular sovereignty, become embroiled in disputes. The silent social majority perceives parliamentary activity as a theater, and politicians as actors. There are those with a democratic heart who suffer immersed in the current of filthy parliamentary waters.

There are rulers who plan to attack the fundamental right to freedom of expression and communication.

Tyrants look through the eyes of their masks. They have already murdered and buried Democracy.

I, Jesus, the Christ, Life, say to the politicians and rulers among whom I permanently live as an insider.

The Right Idea is: Every son and daughter of God contributes with their voice and vote to the establishment of States as organized units of social coexistence.

The Just Idea and the State as a unit of organized social coexistence were inspired by the Father in Heaven in ancient times.-

Therefore, in your struggle against God, you have destroyed what He inspired. And thus, as incarnated demons, you have destroyed yourselves and annihilated each other.

You have reached this end of the cosmic cycle. You are leaving the Earth toward the Abyss. You are creating scorched earth in your path across the Earth because in your war you lost the battle against the Light.

By acting against the citizen-States, you continue to destroy the States from within the institutions that the Sovereign Peoples have given themselves.

The New Humanity will give life to the Just Idea of Democracy by living its Principles in the Kingdom of Peace, established in all countries of the Earth, without borders, weapons, or judges, because the sons and daughters of the Infinite will live in Peace among themselves and with all forms of Life in the Kingdoms of Nature, visible manifestations of the Love of the Father in Heaven made flesh. PEACE.

3.The Father and I have Our Dwelling Place in the Core of Being.

We are in permanent communication with humankind through their brain.

When the cosmic soul-being incarnated on Earth has lost connection with the Father and Me, Christ, they create lead calves, idols, and images. They bow down before them and worship them.

I walked the Earth incarnated in Jesus of Nazareth. I am the True Christ, the Life in the faithful of Christian religions or Churches. But I am not the patrimony of these so-called Christian religions or Churches.

No statue or image represents Me. Whoever claims to be a Christian must truly walk in My Footsteps.

Look in whose footsteps you walk. Reflect.

I said, "Follow Me!" to all the sons and daughters of the Father who dwell in all ages and countries of the Earth.

Idols and images have been created by man, influenced by Darkness. Among the Commandments given to Moses by the Father in Heaven is not to make carved images or images, nor to bow down to them or serve them:

"You shall have no other God but me. You shall not make for yourself carved images or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above or that is on the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I am Yahweh your God..."

In the Universe, energies vibrate at high or low frequencies. They emit and receive according to the Emit/Receive principle. They re-emit what they receive at a certain frequency. And so on.

Idols, images, and sculptures are accumulators of dense energies, lead calves. The images and sculptures venerated by countless people in temples, churches, and places of worship throughout the Earth receive the energy created by the words and thoughts of those who direct their petitions and prayers to each image or sculpture. The dense energy received is of a low vibration frequency.

The dense energy accumulated in images and sculptures vibrates at a certain frequency. They emit and receive at a certain frequency, just like the soul of every inhabitant of the Earth.

The vibration frequency of the dense energy accumulated by each image or sculpture changes as it receives the dense energy emitted by the souls of those who venerate them, which vibrate at a certain frequency. This also happens with the images and sculptures of Christ, Jesus Christ, and Virgin Mary in churches and cathedrals.

If the vibration frequency of the dense energy accumulated in a statue at a given moment is equal to the vibration frequency of the soul of the person who prostrates before it and venerates it, asking that it walk again as a healthy person, then the statue discharges its accumulated dense energy potential to the soul of the person who asks for healing, just as a capacitor discharges its accumulated electrical energy potential if its two charging terminals come into contact.

This discharge of dense energy accumulated in the statue is received by the soul of the sick person, who vibrates at the same vibration frequency as the statue. And the soul transfers it to the body in which it has incarnated.

This person stands up. He sees that he walks better than before prostrating himself before the statue. And he exclaims:

- "Jesus Christ has healed me!"

It happened that, like a chickpea pressed by a finger into the portion of butter on which it was lying, the discharge of the dense energy accumulated in the statue reintroduced into the soul of the person who "healed" the dense energy [karma for many] that the soul had poured into the body through the center of consciousness [chakra for many].

The energy radiated by the soul's Core of Being is pure, of high vibration frequency, but when it passes through the veils of consciousness [shadows, more or less dense] that surround the Core of Being, the energy received by the legs, or other organs, vibrates in the low vibration frequency range.

Then the person may become mildly or seriously ill.

The dense energy returned to the soul by the discharge of dense energy accumulated in the statue was what caused the person to be unable to walk like another healthy person when their soul poured it into the body in which they incarnated.

This dense energy, of low vibration frequency, attached to the soul, was created in this or another incarnation. Such a cause, such an effect. The person became ill because this dense energy attached to their soul was not recognized or transformed in time. Returned to the soul by the discharge of dense energy from the statue, it remained active.

Multiplied by the cosmic principle Emit-Receive, it will cause a more serious illness when the soul pours it back into the body.

4. Those who, because they put themselves forward, claim to have the power to heal sick people are actually being used by astral forces, unennobled souls.

By giving energy or laying on hands, these people claim to "cure" ailments or illnesses caused by the souls' karma that began to pour into the bodies in which they had incarnated.

I, Jesus the Christ, instruct and warn you.

The dense energies that cause so-called karma are returned to the souls of the "healed" people. They continued to think, speak, and act contrary to the Law of Heaven. They created new dense energies, thus increasing their karma.

The increase in so-called karma would not have occurred if the karma that was beginning to pour into their bodies had not been returned to their souls.

When souls from the astral plane act through those who lay hands on or give energy to sick people, those who "heal" create and increase their own karmas by "returning" the dense karma energies that the souls of those they "healed" had poured into the bodies in which they had incarnated. This is why they die prematurely or become seriously ill.

5. I, Life, am within every cosmic being.

For your understanding, human beings become ill because clouds of dense energies [veils of consciousness/shadows of the soul] that envelop the Core of Being [inner Sun] prevent its Rays from intensely irradiating the organs and tissues of the human body.

It is as if the water stored in a pool could not reach the plants and fruit trees in an orchard because there are large stones in the ditches that do not allow sufficient water to pass through.

Then the vegetables and fruit trees do not grow vigorously or bear fruit for sale and consumption.

If the Rays of the inner Sun do not irradiate the organs and tissues of the human body because of dense clouds, human beings become ill. The soul pours so-called karma [dense energies of low vibration frequency] into the body, and the effects of created causes manifest in the human body. Man reaps what he sowed in this or other incarnations by creating dense energies due to what he caused to his fellow human beings and to the beings of the Kingdoms of Nature.

He fell ill because he did not recognize in time the dense energies he created, attached to his soul. Nor did he hand them over to Me, Christ. Then I would have raised his low vibration frequency to a high vibration frequency. In other words, I would have transformed the lead he created, stored in the coffer of his soul, into gold.

6. The pandemic created an enormous field of dense energies that increased the dark density of this World.

Who was involved in the creation of this lead calf?

It is written: The demons inspired biotech scientists to create a product that would modify human DNA. They created synthetic mRNA.

With this product, they could modify the DNA of the brain cells so that man could not communicate with Me, nor I with him through the brain, for I live in Spirit in the Core of the Being of his soul, in permanent contact with his brain.

The secret plan of Darkness was to prevent I and the Father from communicating with you, [who are reading] and you with Us through your brain. To achieve this, they had to genetically modify the DNA of the brain cells. The rulers who, knowing what they knew, authorized the massive injection of the false "vaccine" into healthy people are responsible for their crimes before the Law of Heaven.

«SEE THE SOUL ATTRACTS VIRUSES, NOT THE BODY – 7/1/2025 /

www.entreeleterylatierra.es / Announcements and New Messages

The demons continue to attempt to inject the synthetic mRNA associated with various "vaccines" into children, also through their instruments installed in public organizations and medical associations.

Faced with their pretensions, the cosmic infiltrators in Public Administration Agencies and the media will act decisively.

What had a beginning had an end. The truth of the Lie will be known.

7. I, Jesus, the Christ, am the Life in all the inhabitants of the Earth.

I am the Righteous One. And I do not abandon any of the sheep that bleat for mercy in the dry pastures of this World.

I know of the suffering and despair of millions and millions of healthy people who were injected with the mRNA genetic poison in repeated doses of what were falsely called "vaccines" to save their lives, which were neither vaccines nor life-saving.

They introduced the genetic poison into their bodies without giving them verbal or written information about the contents of the product they were going to be injected with, nor of its adverse effects, as required by the laws of countries on Earth, like medicines purchased in pharmacies. The politicians who usurped the role of doctors lied. Those who called persistent COVID irreversible, untreatable genetic diseases caused by mRNA, which mutates the DNA of all the genes it comes into contact with, continue to lie. Genetic modification is irreversible.

The dense energies of what they called a pandemic created a lead calf. These low-frequency vibration energies continue to emit and receive. The created causes are showing their effects.

8. I, Yoshua, Aide-de-Camp to the Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz, Spokesperson for the true Star Brothers, speak:

"The citizen-states of the Peoples of the Earth have the right to inform and to be informed, protected by the right to freedom of expression, since certain rulers of this World attacked the genetic heritage of human beings during the so-called pandemic, aided by media outlets controlled by demons and their instruments. They also acted from within the democratic institutions that the citizen-states gave themselves. The "pandemic" was premeditatedly created for this purpose by the Darkness and its instruments. We who comprise the Cosmic Forces act by the Command of the Father in Heaven and of Jesus, the Christ, as millions of healthy people allowed themselves to be injected with genetic poison, their will altered by information techniques disseminated by the major television networks. Without television, there would have been no "pandemic."

What happened during the time of the Great Lie created infinite fields of dense energy. They constituted the lead calf that vibrates at a certain frequency. These dense energies are active. They continue to emit, reinforcing the dark density of this World.

What had a beginning will have an end. The dense pandemic energies will be dissolved in the period from their creation until the Coming of Christ in Spirit to the Earth's atmosphere. Their creators will not be among those who will establish the Kingdom of Peace in all the countries of the Earth, now without borders, in the Golden Age. We ask, then, that these dense energies must be dissolved:

"Were crimes committed during the pandemic that didn't happen?"

"Did they intend to repeal the Nuremberg Code?"

We offer sources that will help citizens, judges, prosecutors, and forensic police discern whether or not crimes were committed during the pandemic, and whether and why the Nuremberg Code was repealed so that mRNA could be forcibly injected into those who did not want to be injected with this genetic poison, devised by the Darkness, to introduce the DNA-modifying "vaccine" into human bodies. Nothing will be hidden. Those who are not in the ranks of the Light will be in the ranks of the Darkness. They are free. We remember: "There is no intermediate vibration frequency between Light and Darkness."

9. Between question marks, the following has been published:

"Is the Universe known to man inside a black hole?" It is a theory supported by another theory.

It is like a house of cards propped up by the intellect with another theory to keep it standing.

38 This World of condensed matter has been founded by the intellect on a foundation of paper theories.

The intellect only exists on Earth. The theory created by the intellect is the unreal, submerged in the immensity of the Finite Universe seen by man when he raises his gaze to the starry firmament.

40 We remember that it is really a black hole, neutralizing the theory between question marks: Is the Universe known to man inside a black hole? We state the real:

"A black hole is a Communication Portal between the Infinite Universe and the Finite Universe, located in the Wall of Light."

"It is not a hole, it is a Portal, a space through which one accesses the seventh dimension, Eternity."

Eternity is not a timeless abstraction. Eternity is a real cosmic Realm, where Ether is the fundamental principle.

This space of the Communication Portal is not black. It is occupied by Ether, which vibrates at the High Frequency of BEING, proper to the Infinite Universe, the seventh dimension.

For your understanding, Earth astronomers described it as black because the etheric substance of the seventh dimension vibrates at a frequency not perceived by the eye of telescopes. The etheric substance of the Communication Portals is invisible to telescopes.

The Wall of Light is also invisible to telescopes, for it vibrates at the High Frequency of BEING. It is the border between the Finite Universe and the Infinite Universe, the seventh dimension, Eternity.

10. It is time to remind the Peoples of the Earth of what was prophesied by the Regent of the Wisdom Plane of Heaven incarnated in Isaiah. It will happen during the Kingdom of Peace, in the Golden Age.

Isaiah 11:6-7 "The lion will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the goat. The calf and the lion will eat together, and a little child will lead them. The cow will graze with the bear, and their young will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox."

The Cosmic Men and Cosmic Women of the New Humanity will establish the Kingdom of Peace among the Peoples of Earth, aided by Us, the Brothers of the Stars.

In the MESSAGE FROM THE BROTHERS OF THE STARS GIVEN TO HUMANITY DURING THE COLLAPSE OF THE CURRENT CIVILIZATION - November 2022, it is written:

“Over the course of millennia, with the fighting among themselves and those they seduced against their fellow human beings, killing them and killing animals, the vibrations emitted caused mutations in the genes of the peaceful herbivorous animals in their environments, which became aggressive, killing other animals, and the mutations in their genes produced changes in the organs of their bodies and digestive systems. These vibrations of fighting and killing emitted constituted the dark density of the planet, which, in turn, reinforced, emitted through the atmosphere of the Earth, so many other animals of the land, water, and air began to suffer mutations in their genes over long periods of time, and thus in the organs and systems of their bodies caused by the change in diet.

Over the course of the generations foreseen by the Father in Heaven, the irradiation of the luminous souls of the sons and daughters of God who form the New Humanity, with their living in peace and unity with animals, plants, and Nature during the Kingdom of Peace, will produce changes in the genes of carnivorous animals. As the prophet Isaiah announced in 11:6-7. " www.entreeleterlatierra.es /Announcements and New Messages /LEAD CALVES/ Related Articles.

PDF No. 6 «FORMATION-DISSOLUTION OF DARK DENSITY. CHANGE IN ANIMAL DNA IN THE REALM OF PEACE.

Thus you can understand that "with the fighting between 'them' [the demons] and those seduced against their fellow creatures, killing them and killing animals, the vibrations emitted caused mutations in the genes of the peaceful herbivorous animals in their environment, which gradually became aggressive, killing other animals."

And also that, "Over the course of the generations foreseen by the Father in Heaven, the irradiation of the luminous souls of the sons and daughters of God who form the New Humanity will produce changes in the genes of carnivorous animals through their living in peace and unity with animals, plants, and Nature during the Kingdom of Peace."

Across the Earth, many have begun the Path of Return to the Origin, using and practicing Loving by Loving and the Instructions and Methods for exploring and elevating the vibration frequency of the dense energies attached to their souls until, with the help of Christ, they reach the High Vibration Frequency of BEING [the transformation of dense lead energies into gold energies]. You can find these instructions and methods in SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION and MANUAL FOR RETURNING TO THE ORIGIN.

Genes emit and receive. With your internal work, your souls will elevate their vibration frequency, which will be transferred to the cells and organs of your bodies, modifying the programs of your genes. The change achieved radiates to your fellow human beings, animals, and plants, also magnetizing the environment in which you live.

11. Sexuality that alters the human will causes conflicts between men and women. It has caused wars and the loss of meaning and purpose in the lives of men and women on Earth.

According to sources from the History of the Peoples of the Earth, certain wars arose because rulers lost in bed with women discussed matters of state.

Were lead calves created, accumulators of dense energy created by impulses from beings of darkness invisible to the human eye?

When a man or a woman places the organ located between the groin in the brain, and the brain between the groin, problems begin for both men and women.

12. Countless inhabitants of the Earth are unaware of the inner Heaven of their souls. Man rooted in matter does not know who he is. Nor does he know his Origin. Nor does he know what happens when Death knocks at the door of his soul and he must leave the body in which he was incarnated. Nor does he know that demons are around him, invisible because they do not vibrate at the frequency perceived by the human eye. They project mental waves into his brain, carrying images and thoughts of low vibration frequency.

Demons vampirize human beings by absorbing dense, low-frequency vibration energies. They cannot absorb high-frequency vibration energy because that is the frequency at which Light vibrates. Therefore, they mentally influence human beings to think, speak, and act against their fellow human beings, Mother Earth, and the Beings of the Kingdoms of Nature. In this way, they produce energies with which they can "feed."

13. The existence of humankind with a materialistic consciousness revolves around countless technical, theoretical, artistic, literary, philosophical, religious, military, astronomical, and other creations, characteristic of this World. These creations are like lead calves, those accumulators of dense energies that magnetize the thinking of humankind who does not recognize itself as a spiritual and material duality.

Those with a materialistic consciousness think, preach, theorize, and defend that they are only matter. Like a donkey with earmuffs and a blindfold, they spin their existence on a waterwheel with lead calves, which they give life to with their thoughts, different from the thoughts of others with a materialistic consciousness, because no two souls are alike.

Are there two thoughts alike? Reflect, for each soul is in communication with the brain, the seat of every human being's thought, which can be influenced by those "invisible" to the human eye, projecting low-frequency vibration waves into their brain.

You have read that each soul is in communication with the brain. And so I tell you that I live in the Core of the Being of your soul, united with the Father.

We have Our Home in you. We are the Life in you.

I am the Life in you. I love you. I am willing to remove, with your help, the clouds of dense energies from the lead calves that surround the Core of Being [your Inner Sun], dense energies attached by you to your soul in this and other existences, incarnated in other bodies. And your Inner Sun will radiate and shine intensely in the night of this World. You will be a powerful Spear of Light penetrating the dark density that enveloped your human being.

Do you want to return to what you truly were and are?

Count on Me.

14. People blinded by appearances allow themselves to be seduced by the slogans and proclamations of rulers who lie about the need to equip armies with sophisticated weapons and increase defense spending to maintain apparent peace, threatening other Peoples with war. This person justifies the policies of warlike rulers.

He allows himself to be seduced by the oracles of media prophets, who know what others should do because they don't do what they do well, starting with the politicians.

He boasts of living according to the truths of the fashionable messiah or messiah who inflame the masses in stadiums.

He declares himself a staunch defender of political charlatans and doctors with doctorates in viruses that cause pandemics in ape-man and animals, advocating their slaughter by the millions.

He declares himself a follower of any renowned metaphysician known for his printed word. And he recites the theses of the fashionable crystal-ball economist, famed columnist, seer, and helmsman of the ship of the world economy.

If your thought has struck the table of the intellect, because My Words have stirred your conscience, take the Torch of Light, which I Am, and read again, illuminating each paragraph with My Light.

And whatever vibrates now as foreign to your consciousness, you hand it over to me. I will transform it into gold. And I will place it illuminating that realm of your consciousness with its Light. If you wish, I am willing.

15. If you don't know yourself, you could be basing your existence on self-deception, pretending to live according to what you don't practice.

You will be happy to share with those who give you the opportunity that you are agnostic, that after death there is nothing, and that out of love for Humanity you will donate your corpse to Science, as examples.

Do you cry for the dead person who will be abandoned in the solitude of the cemetery?

Do you cry for the body that will become invisible when it is taken to the crematorium?

Ask yourself if what you read in each paragraph serves as a mirror for you. And act.

You, who go unnoticed, have gone to a funeral home accompanying a friend who has lost a loved one. You have reflected, observing the behavior of the people who visit the funeral home. And you have remembered the moment when you wondered why and what purpose you were on Earth.

Now reflect on these questions:

Did the dead leave behind the countless material creations of this World, lead calves, accumulators of dense energy, with which they lulled their consciences?

Did the dead base the unreal reality of their own existence on the accumulators of dense energy, lead calves, fueled by the power of thought?

Did the lead calves cease to exist for souls when Death unexpectedly opened the door to the Afterlife?

You have read that the dense lead energies created in each incarnation are attached to souls because they were not transformed in time.

Whoever spins their existence on a wheel with lead calves is an unconscious instrument of Darkness in the formation of the dark density of this World.

It was created by demons and their instruments, seduced by "them" over the course of millennia, centuries, and years. But being an unconscious instrument does not exempt them from responsibility.

16. It is necessary to free your cosmic beings—souls—from the dense energies of low vibrational frequency. They do not exist in your Origin.

I will raise the vibrational frequency of those who discover yourselves and surrender to Me.

Thus, they will disappear like clouds of dense energies that envelop the Inner Sun, the Core of the Being of your souls, where the Father and I have Our Dwelling within you.

For your understanding, I call clouds the veils of consciousness that envelop the Inner Sun of your cosmic beings-souls.

There are clouds with different shades of gray, from dark gray, to less dark, to lighter. Thus, there are veils of consciousness formed by dense energies of different vibration frequencies.

If the dense energies of the veils of consciousness are transformed into energy of a High vibration frequency, absolute, that of BEING, the veils of consciousness disappear. Then the irradiation of the Father and Mine from the Inner Sun of your souls also dissolves the dark density of this World. It will disappear. The dark density will not exist on the Earth populated by the New Humanity.

17. The dark density of this World is a field of irradiation formed by the range of dense energies of low vibration frequencies. It has been reinforced by the infinite mental emissions, the irradiation of words and actions of low vibration frequency from the billions of inhabitants of the homeland of lovelessness, which is the Earth. This is why the Titanic of the civilization of lovelessness is sinking.

Remember: What is not Light is Darkness. To Light corresponds the High, absolute frequency of vibration.

Remember that lead calves are accumulators of dense energies.

Remember that the dark density of this World has been formed by accumulations of dense energies.

The created dense energies must be transformed by those who created them, aided by Me, Christ. They are free.

The irradiation fields of dense energies have reinforced the dark density of this World. They have darkened the auras of the Peoples of the Earth more and more. They will discharge like clouds in great storms. Some will fight against others. End of the cosmic cycle. Harvest time. It is a crucial moment for humanity.

It was already prophesied by the Regent of the Plane of Love, incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz: "Not long after the disappearance of Israel as a State, the Great War will erupt between the Peoples of the Earth."

The Global Economy will collapse. It will be the Last War. There will be no winners or losers. In this Last War, "they," the demons, intend to scorch everything that might be useful for the survival of the New Humanity and the establishment of the Kingdom of Peace.

It will be the final death throes of the Seven-Headed Hydra, severed by Me. I Am the Light.

Which pillar will you embrace, seeing at dawn each day the tribulations, the storms of suffering, the collapse of the ailing Economy, the wars provoked by "them" beating the drums to scorch everything that will help us survive? Don't be seduced.

18. Certain leaders of the Peoples are lying.

The vast resources they said they needed to refloat the ship of the Economy, which they themselves had sunk, are now being used to buy weapons. And they beat the drums of war in the media, accusing another People of the war they refused to wage, and which they provoked. It is "they" who light the fuse.

I Am the Life in each one of them. And I know what they think and plot, lying to their Peoples. They are children of the Father of Lies, Satan.

Which pillar will you embrace, seeing the continuous dynamite of ethics by the governing actors of certain States of this World?

They are the ones who truly decided to provoke the Great War in their scorched earth journey toward the Abyss. They even wanted to detonate atomic bombs to contaminate the land, the water, everything, so that the New Humanity could not establish the Kingdom of Peace on Earth. They were seriously warned by My Channel, Alfonso de Adamuz.

19. I Am Christ, the True One, the Life within you.

You are My People, wherever you live on Earth.

I fight for you with the weapons of Love and Peace.

Come all to Me, for I want to carry your burden.

I Am the Light at the end of the tunnel.

I Am the Golden Pillar you can embrace.

I Am the firm Hand that will help you walk through the turbulence and tribulations of this World.

I Am the Comforter.

I Am Peace.

I Am Love.

I Am Hope.

I will lead you to the Father, to the Dwellings you left in the wonderful Worlds Beyond the Stars.

I Am Freedom. Take My Hand if you so wish.

20. To you who read, I say that the Father's and My radiation from the Inner Sun of ennobled souls dissolves the dark density of this World. And it will disappear.

I tell you that the dark density will not exist on the Earth populated by the New Humanity.

I tell you that "It is necessary to save everything that can be saved."

I tell you that it is necessary to help those who seek to escape the labyrinth of the dark density of this World.

Do you want to help? My proposal is serious.

If you have said yes, then begin by helping yourself. Then I will help you. I keep My Word.

Be aware that you have helped to reinforce the dark density of this World, even if unconsciously.

You have created dense energies from which you must free your soul.

I help you find the dense energies. And how, where, and when they were created. I will raise their vibration frequency. I will transform lead into gold.

Conscious breathing raises the vibration frequency of your soul. There is something else in the air that scientists don't know.

Take note if, as you read each of the following affirmations, images and thoughts come to your consciousness, or you feel your solar plexus area vibrate. Talk to Me about what you have noted. And give it to Me.

Let's begin:

Consciously breathe several times. Use CRIS ----*---- TO.

When you mentally pronounce CRIS, inhale. Hold the air* in your lungs as long as you can. This gives you time for the oxygen [O2] to pass into the blood, and the carbon dioxide [CO2] from the blood to pass into the lungs. When you mentally pronounce TO, exhale.

READ CONSCIOUSLY:

1. The dark density of this World has been reinforced by the irradiation of infinite fields of dense energies created in wars, in the struggles of thoughts and words between peers.
2. It is also reinforced by the low vibration frequency radiated by television antennas when they broadcast films and documentaries about wars, destruction, murders, and slaughter of human beings and animals, performances, scenes, and verbiage of actors and actresses in films that intoxicate the consciences, not only of children.
3. It is reinforced by the low vibration frequency energies radiated by countless television receivers operating day and night, hour after hour, day after day, year after year in homes and businesses in cities and towns throughout the Earth.
4. The dark density of this World has been and continues to be created and reinforced by acts of lack of Love against our brothers and sisters in Life, against the beings of the Kingdoms of Nature, and against Mother Earth.
5. It has been and continues to be created and reinforced by the vibrations radiated by intensive animal farms throughout the Earth, caged and stabled, travelers trapped in the circular train of nights and days. Anonymous centers for materialistic consciousnesses.
6. The dark density has been created and reinforced by the vibrations emitted by the slaughter of animals in millions of slaughterhouses throughout the Earth. These dens of death and suffering, carcass factories, where billions of mammals and birds are killed to consume their carcasses as sources of protein.

The Father in Heaven commands "Thou shalt not kill," not only people. Also, not to kill other animals in fields and mountains, nor in slaughterhouses.

[It is written that, by eating only grass and dry pastures in mountains, meadows, and fields, calves, cows, sheep, goats, and horses produce the proteins for which they are cruelly killed in slaughterhouses.

Therefore, man would not have to kill animals, nor devour the carcasses of animals killed by others as sources of protein.]

7. The dark density is created and reinforced by the vibrations radiated by the death and suffering of countless animals, prisoners caged or strapped to benches. Helpless, abandoned to their fate, they suffer every moment of the nights and days in Animal Experimentation Centers throughout the Earth.

8. The dark density of this World is created and reinforced by the vibrations of pain, suffering, and death of harpooned whales dragged onto the platforms of whaling ships, skinned and quartered while still alive. And by the death vibrations of the countless fish caught in surface nets, thrown onto the decks of ships. Sharks' fins are cut off and thrown back into the sea. Dense energies are also created by the death and suffering of marine animals caught in trawl nets, thrown onto the decks of ships. Their carcasses will be consumed on land.

9. The dark density is being created and reinforced by the vibrations of pain and suffering of animals killed in flight, by the vibrations of pain and suffering of animals targeted by rifles and shotguns in the mountains and fields of the Earth.

10. It has been created and reinforced by the vibrations of terror and fear emitted by millions and millions of animals transported crowded, standing up, in wagons, trucks, and ships. Their final destination is slaughterhouses. Those who justify the existence of centers of death, pain, and suffering of animals with arguments forged in the intellect will never feel compassion for animals, their brothers in Life, which I Am.

11. The dark density is reinforced by radio and television antennas when they broadcast programs whose content radiates low-frequency vibration energies.

The dark density dissolves when television and radio antennas broadcast programs with the Word of the Father and My Word, and the words of cosmic beings of high vibration frequency.

It dissolves because of the radiation emitted by radio and television receivers that receive these programs.

I Am the Life in you and in the animals who are victims of the instruments of Darkness on the fronts of the war against animals. I Am Their Voice.

There are many fronts in the war of Darkness against animals, marvelous manifestations of the Father's Love made flesh, thus visible to Humanity.

21. Have you felt like an involuntary accomplice of Darkness in the war waged against animals on the battlefronts revealed to your consciousness?

If so, your consciousness is alive. You must know that Darkness is also losing the battle against animals, your little brothers in Life, which I Am.

The dense, lead-based energies of low vibration frequency created in another incarnation are active in your soul, even though you disincarnated at that time and have reincarnated in these times. Therefore, investigate the dense, low-vibrational energies that you have attached to your cosmic soul-being. And you hand them over to Me, Christ.

I will attach to your soul, converted into gold, whatever dense, lead-based energy you give Me, for I will elevate the low vibration frequency of the dense energies until they reach the High Vibration Frequency of the gold-based energy. Gold energy is part of the heritage of your cosmic Being.

Also explore precious stones and gold, the good you have in your soul. It will help you achieve victory in your fight against the beings of Darkness. Do not forget that they are invisible, for they vibrate at a frequency not perceived by your eyes.

22.The Light is dissolving the dark density of this World.

The dark density of this World is being dissolved by the powerful Light of the Father and Mine through the Nuclei of Being of souls not enveloped by veils of dense energies.

It is being dissolved through the Nuclei of Life of animals that fly, live on land, and in continental and maritime waters.

It is being dissolved through the Life Essences of small animals with varying degrees of evolution and development.

It is being dissolved through the Essences of primary development of the countless small beings whose habitats are farmlands.

By the dissolution of the dark density of this World through animals, Darkness declared war on animals through its instruments.

23. You are reading My Words because the Father in Heaven and I speak to Humanity through the Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz.

He has been incarnating century after century on Earth, accumulating experiences to be with you, with everyone, during the events of the collapse of the civilization of lovelessness. You will learn from what he has experienced, and I will now write about him.

Alfonso de Adamuz has been enduring attacks from the Darkness for years, beginning on January 4, 1983. On that day, the demons discovered His Light as Regent of the Plane of Love. It had remained covered by the Father. He was attacked by a host of demons in the early hours of January 4-5 while he slept.

It happened that on the night of the 4th, his Flame of Love transformed the evil energy projected onto a daughter of Heaven by an instrument from the sphere of Darkness.

There was an audible flare and explosion. What happened was witnessed by the invisible beings accompanying the person who projected the evil energy.

When the attack began, Alfonso called to Me: "Christ, Christ, Christ!" I came from within his Comic Being. And I repelled the demons' attack. Alfonso's body was powerfully magnetized by Me. When you read his call three times, I instruct you:

"Call Me three times if you feel the presence of the invisible ones, or if you are attacked mentally or internally by 'them.'

Since the Darkness discovered its Light as Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated on Earth, he was attacked night and day by 'them,' also by incarnated 'them,' and by seduced instruments sent by the satanic Hierarchies.

For years, he was attacked by those who came down on a Mission to Earth, seduced by the Darkness. They carried Me on their lips, but they crucified Me in Alfonso de Adamuz time and again.

Meanwhile, Alfonso wrote and published articles. He traveled under the protection of Star Brothers. He visited radio stations and television channels. They broadcast programs with My Word and other programs for TV. He created with many of them a relationship of trust and friendship that still It endures.

Alfonso managed to broadcast live My Word, received by telephone, on Channel 45 TV in Andújar and Channel 30 in Córdoba. My Word was linked to moving images of Nature, filmed by him on the coasts, mountains, meadows, streams, and mountain rivers.

I manifested Myself through Our Prophet Gabriele of Würzburg. He made copies of these programs, broadcast live on television channels he visited personally.

He suffered harsh experiences. His family was destroyed. He was morally murdered by the person who had committed the act of destroying the family. He called people from towns where He was esteemed and respected, blaming Him for destroying the family, which He did not do.

His eldest daughter died. She lived with him, along with another son. Both wanted to remain with their father.

He has been morally murdered by incarnated demons. They caused scandal to tarnish his name. He was pursued by instruments of those in power at the service of Darkness. They tried to assassinate him on his travels. They will never succeed, always escorted by Star Brothers, protected by them from the ships, and by his Aide-de-Camp, Joshua, permanently placed at his side by mandate of the Father in Heaven.

Being Omnipresent, I also accompany him as a Being along with Joshua in this time when he is in the sights of packs of incarnated demons and instruments commanded by the invisible, for he has been promoting and announcing the Spiritual Revolution among all the Peoples of the Earth, and denouncing with words of iron those who have scorched the genetic heritage of the Peoples and anything that might help the ethical remnants survive, who will establish the Kingdom of Peace on Earth after My Coming in Spirit to the Earth's atmosphere.

It is a sign of what has been endured and suffered. For all this, and much more, the Father in Heaven asks in His Message THE PATH OF THE PRECIPICE:

"Carry in your hearts the Regent of the Plane of Love, My Son."

What He said as Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz, [A.D'Hertzáurea], to the incarnated demons and those of the invisible plane, remains and will remain written. They know that they will leave the Earth for the Abyss, for the Earth is raising its frequency of vibration and thus its potential for Light, which the demons cannot bear.

24. I, Alfonso de Adamuz, speak.

I share the experience of the action of the Elemental Spiritual Forces of Water and Air.

I knew then that Christ can help through the gold-energy in sons and daughters of God.

In mid-June 1996, I needed to film images of moving water and other nature scenes. The streams and creeks were dry. The Manifestation of the Word of Jesus, the Christ, through Gabriele of Würzburg, His prophet, was imminent, broadcast live on Channel 30 of Córdoba Television.

I was traveling to Adamuz to pick up my mail at the Post Office. Crossing the bridge over the dry Algameasilla stream, I said to Jesus, the Christ:

- "I don't have any images of water for next week's program."

And I didn't have a database of moving images lasting more than an hour to support the Word I received live, translated from German into Spanish.

The next day, June 18, 1996, I was traveling to Adamuz mid-morning. As I crossed the bridge over the Algameasilla stream, I saw abundant, clear water running along the entire length of the channel! I was surprised, since the stream had been dry the day before, I asked Jesús:

- "What happened?"

- "It's rainwater," he said. And he remained silent.

I returned home, grabbed my equipment, rain boots, and a camera to film. I live about 1,000 meters from the stream, and I hadn't seen any clouds the previous afternoon.

I drove upstream on the dry road near the stream. I stopped when the water from the stream cut across the path that crossed it. The water ran clear over the gravel and sand bottom. I put on my rain boots and began filming from inside the riverbed with the camera mounted on the tripod. I was filming when I heard my name being called. A few meters behind me was Manolo "el de la Dieguilla," smiling as always. I went to meet him, and he hugged me.

"I love you so much, Alfonso!" -he said, like when he used to see me on the street in Adamuz, and he came toward me with his arms open and his eyes full of light. He looked at me, hugged me, and said,

"I love you so much, Alfonso!" And I felt like his heart was speaking to me.

I stopped filming. I asked him, "Manolo, what are you doing here?"

He told me he was removing the twigs from the olive trees.

"What happened? Yesterday morning the stream was dry, and today it's carrying a lot of water."

He told me that in the afternoon he was sitting under an olive tree and saw black clouds passing upstream, and when they were over those hills [pointing north] a thunderclap went boom! and it started to rain.

I continued taking pictures along the stream bed.

Christ told me through the “gold” of Manolo’s cosmic soul-being why the stream carried water. There must have been many black clouds, as Manolo mentioned, and they had discharged into the headwaters of the stream.

Manolo and I were united in another existence. His cosmic soul-being was incarnated in the human envelope he had in this existence. He lived experiences that ennobled his soul, incarnated in a body with a different mental capacity than other people. The light in his eyes was the word of his soul. I learned from a relative that he had passed away. His cosmic soul-being left his body. Now he is a slender cosmic being. He is in the Zone of Light, with me. With other cosmic beings in the soul-body, he awaits the moment to begin the Path of Return to the Homeland of Light through the intermediate cosmic Stations. I will help him walk Home.

25. The Earth is a School. Every experience and every second is important.

At any moment, what was announced can happen. And nothing will be the same as the previous second.

Every second and every experience of your stay on Earth is important. It is necessary to seize every moment.

Forty-one years ago, at a public meeting where Jesus, the Christ, spoke through His prophet, Gabriele of Würzburg, I felt He was referring to me from what He said at a certain moment. My inner self vibrated. I stood up and spoke to Him publicly. And He addressed Me. "My Friend, give Me your burden," He said, among other things. Between Him and me there has been a deep relationship of friendship.

I share why I traveled urgently to Úbeda. It happened before I arrived there. He, My Friend, is the Life in whom I urgently needed help.

"One morning in mid-July 1996, while talking to Him, I said: I love you. Around 1:00 PM, I felt the urge to travel to Úbeda.

I dropped what I was doing. I prepared the trip. I grabbed a copy of the last program broadcast live with His Word on Channel 30 in Córdoba to give to my friend Paco Hurtado, then director of Tele Úbeda. I drove quickly. If I didn't arrive by 3:00 PM, I'd have to wait for Tele Úbeda to open.

At the entrance to Rus, I encountered a long line of vehicles.

They moved forward and stopped as the traffic lights on the road that crosses the town opened and closed.

In the distance, to the right of the traffic light, a woman was waiting for someone to pick her up when the light closed. But no one was stopping. It was bright sunlight. I looked at my watch. I thought that if someone didn't pick her up, If I had picked up the car before I reached the traffic light, I'd have to leave the road, pick it up, wait for the light to close before joining the road, get to Úbeda, wander around, find parking, and head for Tele Úbeda, which I might find closed. And I was still far from the traffic light.

As I approached the traffic light, the woman was still there, in the sun. There were cars behind me. The light turned green, and as I passed where she was, I looked at her. She was wearing a white shirt with suspenders. Her shoulders were very red; the sun was burning. As soon as we passed the traffic light, Jesus said to me:

"You didn't say you loved Me."

I cried. I pulled off the road. I stopped right at the corner of a chapel where the road runs. The traffic light closed, so I was able to cross the road and drove toward Córdoba.

I asked Jesús to be there when I passed her. When I could, I pulled off the road, turned around, and got to the end of the line of vehicles heading toward Úbeda, stopping and starting as the line of vehicles moved toward the traffic light.

She was still there, in the sun, by the traffic light.

As soon as I could, I pulled out of the car before reaching the traffic light. I reached her, stopped, and got out. I greeted her and opened the door for her. She got in. She thanked me. I started the car and pulled into front of the closed traffic light. I asked the driver of the first car stopped at the light to let me know when it opened, and he nodded. When the traffic light opened, we started moving.

Then I asked her where she was going. She told me Úbeda.

"I'm going there," I said. "My name is Alfonso, and you." She told me her name. [I'm omitting it, M.J.]

I asked M.J. how long she'd been waiting at the traffic light. She told me since 10:00.

"So much time waiting in the sun and no one has picked you up!"

"I'm a prostitute. They know me here. And they don't want them to see me getting into their car. I live in Úbeda. I dropped out of school in the fourth grade. Due to my family's circumstances and not finding a job, I've had to live as a prostitute."

M.J. asked me why I was going to Úbeda. I told him I was going to Tele Úbeda to host a program in which Jesus, the Christ, speaks to humanity through a prophetess.

-"Alfonso, but this is internal," M.J. told me, overwhelmed with tears in her eyes, crossing her arms over her chest with her hands open.

At the entrance to Úbeda, she told me:

-"Leave me here. I don't want them to see you with me."

I told M.J. that I didn't mind being seen with her, that I would take her to the street where her house was. She told me she lived on a street near the Parador de Úbeda. She showed me the way to get there.

I stopped at the entrance to the Parador de Úbeda. I got out and opened the door for her. She thanked me. She told me she was glad to have met me.

-"Can I give you a kiss?" -"Yes," and she kissed me on the forehead.

-"I want to give you a gift," I said. I opened the hood of the car. I gave her a cassette with a Manifestation of the Word of Jesus, the Christ, through His prophet, the Co-Regent of the Plane of Wisdom incarnated in Gabriele of Würzburg.

She told me she was going to listen to His Word. And she went home.

From the Parador de Úbeda, I went to an olive grove on the outskirts of Úbeda. I parked the car in the shade of a large olive tree. I drank water and ate what I had put in my travel bag. I waited for Tele Úbeda to open."

Christ, the Life in M.J., knew she was suffering. Her skin had burned under the July sun for hours, and she needed help. Speechless, He gave me the impulse to travel to Tele Úbeda at 1:00 PM. Starting and stopping in the line of vehicles, I saw M.J. in the sun. Talking to Him in the morning, I said, "I love you." As I was passing through the red light, I saw M.J. sunburned. Then My Friend Jesus said to me:

-"You didn't say you loved Me."

26. Help to achieve the liberation of your soul.

The Father and I have asked Alfonso de Adamuz to include in CALVES OF LEAD the Words we dictated to him in May 1998, and My Words to the Cosmic Being who incarnated in the human shell that was Mary, My mother, when I was her son, Jesus of Nazareth. This feminine Cosmic Being incarnated to fulfill in her current existence what she promised before the Father in Heaven.

You will be able to reflect on what can happen and the dangers that threaten from the invisible plane the Cosmic Beings who depart from the Pure Worlds and planets of the fifth dimension to fulfill their Mission of aiding Humanity on Earth. Among them, the Regent of the Plane of Love incarnated in Alfonso de Adamuz, and the Co-Regent of the Plane of Mercy.

Our Words dictated in 1998 to Alfonso de Adamuz will serve as an example and help in your struggle to achieve the liberation of your soul from the dense, lead-like energies attached to it, if you have begun the Path of Return to the Homeland of Light.

At that time, Alfonso de Adamuz lived beautiful experiences, but it was also a time of attacks from the Satanic Hierarchies, of betrayals, of moral murders, and of "temptations at home" directed by Darkness, well known to the Father and to Me.

In what the Father and I said to Alfonso de Adamuz in May 1998, you have what can help you expand your consciousness. You are free to accept it.

Dictated by Me to Alfonso. May 12, 1998

‘Light up in Me like a flower opens in the morning sun. Always understand that I Am the Love within you. And you must be My mirror. Bless everything in My Name with the Strength that I Am within you. And you will be My Mirror amidst the mists of this World.

Announce Me again and again with your example. You already know how I see through you and what My Strength is like in your Word. I always look at you through the eyes of your brothers and sisters. And you love Me, yes. You love Me even when you think you don't love Me. Accept yourself as you are in your failings, and surrender them to Me. I always await your call. Come to Me, for I want to console you in your solitude, necessary for your spiritual growth. Now you are aware that without silence you cannot feel that need to come and meet Me within you.

I listen to you as a Friend of the heart listens to a friend. And I offer you My Strength. Do you feel it now? – Yes. You already know that nothing is a coincidence. I Am the Strength that blesses you in this moment.

What more do you want? You have experiences that many would never dream of. You have experienced Me in many ways throughout these years, My faithful Friend. It is true that there are many bumps in the road you have stepped on and many traps that have been set for you. But you already know that you always have Me at your side and within you.

Come to Me always, for I want to strengthen you, to give you the full confidence that I, Life, Am your inseparable Friend. It is not easy to live in this World. I was a man, and I know it. But you always have Me within you, accompanying you, feeling you.

I know of your longings for Me, My faithful Friend and Brother. Have Hope.

Take comfort that everything will be given to you in due time so that future fruits will not be spoiled. Let Me set the time of My gift to you.

Thus you will know that I, your Friend, know what is best for you, what pleases you most. And I want to give it to you because I love you.Peace.

26.2 DICTATED BY THE FATHER TO ALFONSO. May 14, 1998.

I descend to you from the Home, My Son. I Am the Life within you, the Love.

Undress yourself before Me like a child so that your true Being may emerge in Purity, for I need you entirely pure.

I Am in you the Hope that encourages you to follow step by step the Path to My Heart.

My son, I love you. I love you so much!

From My tenderness I give you the caresses you so long for. You give them to Me in your animal brothers. And thus you caress yourself in your soul, your Being.

My son, the time that is falling upon the Earth is dark.

Hurry to prepare as much as you can. I am giving you the means.

Rely on My Strength as much as you can in any place and country.

I live in you. Do not fear failure. Come to Me in your doubts. I will give you new strength to continue.

My Son, I know your difficulties, your struggles, but I love you, just as you are. Love your brothers and sisters in this way, too. Strive again and again to see the positive in them, for that is how you see Me.

My Son, I love you. And I hold you tenderly against My breast of Light. My Son, do you feel better now? You see that I hear your prayers, that I am attentive to you in the smallest way, even when you think yourself lost in the gray solitude of this world. I, your Father, love you infinitely.

Come to Me in the Mansions. Enter into My joy. All that is Mine is your inheritance and that of all the children of My Heart.

Thus all will be fulfilled according to My Word. Blessed will you be, the children of My Heart who one day came down to Earth out of Love.

Take heart, take comfort, for the time is coming when I make everything new for the good of many and of all Creation.

I am in you every moment of your existence, living in you, I, the Strength, the Love in you. Peace.

26.3 DICTATED BY ME TO ALFONSO. May 17, 1998. [Tamujoso stream]

Yes, you feel Me in the radiant energy that I Am, and now it blesses you. You feel Me in you. And I vibrate with My Love also in each of your cells.

Everything will be given to you, you have heard within yourself time and again. I always keep My promises, My faithful Friend.

Rest in Me, just as you are doing today. Rest trusting in Me and in the Love of our Beloved Father.

You see Me in the flowers. You feel Me in the birds. You have communicated with Me in the turtle that swims in the stream. I Am the murmur of the water. I am also the eternal murmur of the Water of Life that I Am in you.

Ignite more and more in My Love. Thus I will draw closer and closer to you as well. And you will experience the wonders I have prepared for those who love Me, the Being, from the heart.

Bless all in My Name. Be My radiant mirror, for much Light is needed for the darkness of this World.

Come again and again to Me in the Core of Being. I am always attentive to your call. You know that I always answer you, that I never fail you. Take the experiences you are living as good. This way you will know what you must overcome and you will be able to help other brothers and sisters in the future. Everything is a struggle. And remember that before victory comes the struggle.

I Am Harmony in you. You have noticed it in the harmony of the letters you write. Everything flows through Me, and you are enveloped in the radiance of My Being.

I Am the Life that surrounds you everywhere. I Am the breeze, the beauty, the song of the bird. I Am the Strength in your heart. Do you love Me? – Yes, I love you. – So feel Me in everything. You know that I live in Strength in all things. And I look at you through the eyes of all.

Come to Me, Friend, for I want to comfort you. Wait on Me. I know that I await with you the moment of your final victory and joy. I love you.
Peace.

26.4 AS MARY, YOU WERE MY MOTHER, AND I, JESUS OF NAZARETH.[March 2025]

Free your Cosmic Being-soul from the dense energies. I help you. The harvest time for Humanity is accelerating. Every second is important for you and for all the sons and daughters of the Father who inhabit the Earth.

The builders of the civilization of unlove reap what was sown with lead seeds. You need to free your soul from the lead energies of your cosmic being-soul.

I Am Love, and I live in you.

Do you remember when you thought, 'History repeats itself again,' when you saw the image of Mary with the Child?

You, as a higher Cosmic Being, departed from Heaven to incarnate in the body of the one who was Mary. I was Jesus of Nazareth, and you, Mary, My mother. Joseph was My father, a lofty Cosmic Being who departed from Heaven and incarnated in the body of the one who was Joseph.

He was a widower. He took you as his wife, young, to carry in your womb the fruit of your union, the body in which I incarnated and was Jesus of Nazareth.

You returned from Heaven as the Father planned to unite with the one who asked you to be his wife, thus fulfilling what the Father planned for the good of Humanity. You rejected what was offered. What could have been, was not then. Nor can it be now. And you know why.

The Father and I know of the dangers, of what can happen to cosmic beings who descend to Earth on a Mission of Love, stalked by demons and their instruments.

The Father knew what, with you free, could happen at a crucial moment for Humanity. And so He foresaw that in the first year of the 21st century, another elevated feminine Cosmic Being would incarnate in a family in Adamuz, if you failed to fulfill what you had promised in the Throne Room before the wave of sons and daughters of Heaven who were about to descend to Earth on a Mission of Love.

If you had truly accepted and fulfilled your Mission, as when you were My mother, and I, your Son, Jesus, this elevated feminine Cosmic Being would not have incarnated at this moment, but rather after My Second Coming in Spirit to the Earth's atmosphere. This is her first incarnation on Earth.

She is the daughter of the Senior Angels who stand before the Throne of the Father and Mine. The Father and I will make her Name and Mission known to the Peoples of the Earth when the time comes. With her incarnation, she fulfills what the Father planned for the good of the Cosmic Men and Women of the New Humanity. Aided by the Brothers and Sisters of the Stars, they will establish the Kingdom of Peace among all the Peoples of the Earth, without borders or communication.

Remember all that you have been experiencing since you refused to fulfill what was promised to you in Heaven. And purify it.

If you had been a goldfish, you would not have taken the lead worm bait placed by the incarnate demon, who was your executioner and herald in the public square. The blame is not all his, for you wanted to eat the lead worm he offered you. Acknowledge your share of the blame and hand it over to Me.

I remind you that omissions and betrayals have created lead clouds that prevent your potential for Light from radiating to the Inner Sun of your soul.

Knowing what you knew, you created causes that produced its effects. You did not speak to the Father or to Me when this demon placed the lead worm bait in your ear. And you allowed yourself to be magnetized and attacked by the wolves of the night that prowl around your house.

Keep silent. If you speak, you will betray Me. And you will attach more lead energies to your cosmic soul-being. You will then suffer because you have so chosen. If you wish, come speak with Me in the Interior Mansions. I await your call.

I Am the Life within you. I know when the wolves of the night entrenched themselves in your thoughts. You have high instructions and knowledge to free yourself from the dense energies that you attached to your cosmic soul-being in this existence. You sought to experience the opposite of the Law of Love and were attacked by the wolves of the night, knowing what you knew.

I Am Love. I will help you if you recognize and surrender to Me the dense lead energies you created. I will transform them into gold, which I will place in the cosmic soul-being's chest.

Live in the present. Constantly guard your thoughts and the leaden images that the demons introduce into your thoughts.

I remind you: Recognize the dense leaden energies you created. With My help, you will neutralize the magnetic bases installed by the wolves of the night in your brain. Investigate yourself, then, and give Me your burden. I want to carry it with you. And you will free yourself from the dense energies you have attached to your cosmic soul. Be fair to yourself, being your own judge.

Remember that "I cannot do for you what you do not want to do for you. I will help you if you go ahead and help yourself. If you fight for yourself, you will achieve victory. Take My Hand."

Have Hope. Time is running out. Don't waste seconds. Work intensely on yourself so that you may once again become the radiant, marvelous cosmic Being you were when you incarnated in Mary, when you and Joseph were My parents. You can do it. You have My help." You will know that you have recovered your golden energy potential, that you have achieved victory over the Darkness, if, when the time comes, the Star Brothers from the ships take action for you, according to Our Father's Command. I love you. Peace.

27. Spiritual Forces produce "climatic" events

I, Jesus, the Christ, address the Peoples of Earth as Co-Regent of the Infinite in this time of great change. Countless Cosmic Beings who descended to Earth to aid Humanity continue to launch the Barges of Love during the sinking of the civilization of dis-Love.

"Save all that can be saved" is the Motto.

A civilization not built on the golden pillars of lived ethical values is sinking. You already know why this civilization is sinking.

Given the increase in “climatic” events in countries throughout the Earth, I remind you that they are being produced by the SPIRITUAL FORCES of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air.

For years, official meteorology has been primarily concerned with weather forecasting based on data provided by technical means, satellites, weather stations, and climatology. Their scope of observation has been the continental and maritime surface, the Earth's atmosphere, and that of individual countries.

However, the Spiritual Forces of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air are determining the so-called climate change. But the effects of the true climate change produced by the Spiritual Forces, preparing the Earth's crust for the establishment of the New Humanity, are the death certificate of the current civilization built on gold-painted lead columns. It is happening.

The peoples who live in countries located in one or the other of the Earth's hemispheres have been experiencing storms and low pressures that follow one another, associated with strong winds and persistent precipitation, causing floods and hail. However, gentle and beneficial rains also fall in certain areas, while snow and hailstorms fall in others. Why? This question will make you reflect.

In both countries, there are periods of stable weather and sudden temperature changes. In other countries and climate zones, hurricanes and cyclones cause devastation. In others, volcanoes erupt, as do submarines, and numerous earthquakes shake the Earth's crust, although the media only report on a few. Coasts are battered by waves, and strong winds drive large cloud masses toward the continents.

Unforeseen weather events occur in countries' climate zones, altering crop and harvest cycles. Even though these are unforeseen weather events, there are countries that have survived the drought, receiving the rain they haven't had in years. And parched lands have become green again. Why?

The spiritual force of Water has produced unpredictable weather events, causing natural disasters, death, and destruction.

What happened has made many reflect. They think there is "something else," to which meteorologists cannot answer. There is. And it will continue.

This "something more" is happening and will continue to happen. It originates in the Core, or inner Sun, of the Soul of Mother Earth. It was revealed some time ago in SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION, a chapter in which Mother Earth speaks to Humanity through Alfonso de Adamuz.

Updates are included in the chapter:

“The Infinite is irradiating the Core of my planetary Soul from the Primary Central Sun through the Central Sun of the Galaxy. By raising its vibration frequency, it causes the increased expansion of the magma, elevating my crust.

[Its vibration frequency has changed, the expansion of the magma has increased, and the temperature is now higher.]

I communicate to Humanity that Atlantis, the sunken continent, began to emerge last century. [It continues to rise.]

I will continue to elevate Atlantis. Once it emerges, it will form part of the Bridge that will unite the continental shelf of America with that of Southern Europe. This is foreseen by the Father in Heaven.

The process of elevating my submerged crust is producing changes in the underwater topography and marine currents, which will bless the lands of the European continent with warm waters and rain.

The intense irradiation of the Primary Central Sun of the Universe increases the temperature. from my core, and causes the expansion of magma that seeks to reach the surface, producing earthquakes and causing underwater volcanoes to erupt, both known and dormant volcanoes. And those that are emerging in unexpected places, with magma also escaping through cracks in my crust.

There are other changes that I am making known:

The increase in the temperature of my core and the expansion of magma has caused an increase in the temperature of my crust, covered by marine waters, which heats the water above it, like the hearths of a kitchen heat the water in a container on the fire. Here, the temperature of the water equalizes with that of the water on the surface.

[In the Earth's crust, covered by the waters of the Earth's seas and oceans, there are numerous volcanic fields that continually heat large masses of water that rise to the surface of seas and oceans, also in the Mediterranean Sea.]

[Update/December/2025. Said for the entire Earth]

[The vibrational frequency of the Core of the Planetary Soul continues to rise. The temperature of the submerged Earth's crust increases and heats the water in contact with it, which rises to the sea's surface. The same occurs with the crust covered by ice, for example, in Antarctica. And it causes the increased melting of the ice.

Scientists attribute the melting solely to the rise in atmospheric temperature as an effect of so-called climate change, when on the other hand they recognize the increase in the temperature of the sea waters. From the surface of these waters, large masses of water vapor rise into the atmosphere, directed by the Elemental Force of Air toward the continental crust. And they release copiously upon it as rain, hail, or snow. This, in turn, is attributed to so-called climate change.

In reality, the events of so-called climate change are caused by the action of the Spiritual Forces of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air, set in motion by the PRIMARY CENTRAL SUN of the Pure Worlds.

The Primary Central Sun is the CORE of the BEING of the Creator Father, which also directs and orders the processes of the Finite Universe, observed by those who inhabit planet Earth when they raise their gaze to the starry firmament.

These are cosmic processes that lead to the inexorable absorption by the PRIMARY CENTRAL SUN of all that exists in the Finite Universe, which passes into the Infinite Universe through the Portals of Communication, if it has reached the Absolute Vibrational Frequency of the BEING that governs in the seventh dimension, Eternity, or Pure Worlds, or Homeland of Light, as it is also known by many cosmic beings incarnated in families of Earth's Peoples.}

When the water from the bottom rises to the surface, it is replaced by colder, denser water, And the heated water below joins the water heated by the Sun. Large masses of water vapor then rise into the atmosphere in the tropics and subtropics. Meteorologists have called these "atmospheric rivers." These rivers, displaced by the wind, encounter cold air masses upon reaching the continental shelf, often causing intense rains and hailstorms.

In this case, the Elemental Force of Water is at work. Its function is to cleanse my crust, magnetized by demons and their instruments for countless millennia. The cleansing of my crust by the Element of Water is complemented by the cleansing performed by the Elements of Fire, Earth, and Air, preparing my crust for the settlement of the New Humanity in the Kingdom of Peace.

Humanity calls these new "climate-type" events the "effects of climate change," which they claim must be fought against.

Humanity must know that the new "climate" events are produced by the SPIRITUAL FORCES Fire, Water, Earth and Air, put into action by the PRIMARY CENTRAL SUN of the Pure Worlds to cleanse my crust of the magnetism with which the beings of Darkness impregnated it.

And SPIRITUAL FORCES act. This is the reason why unexpected "climatic events" occur, which meteorologists cannot predict.

Humanity must know that the PRIMARY CENTRAL SUN receives from my Core the information received from the inhabitants of the planet and the beings of the Kingdoms of Nature, and transmits it to the spiritual Forces of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air.

In other words, the information I receive from the inhabitants of the planet and the beings of Nature is transmitted by my Core to the Primary Central Sun. With this information, it puts the SPIRITUAL FORCES of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air into action to cleanse my crust, on which the Humanity of the Kingdom of Peace will be established, which was intensely magnetized by demons and their instruments.

Reality is unknown to Humanity, masked by climatic events.

To those sheltered by me, I say:

I am not the photograph of the planet you know.

I am your Cosmic Mother.

And I welcome you as a mother welcomes her children. In me you have your homes.

I am the lands that give you food.

I am the water of the springs and rivers that you need to live.

I am the air of the atmosphere that you breathe.

I am the School where you experience your journey back to your cosmic homes.

Let each of you reflect on how you have been doing with me.

We are in a time when information is hidden by those who have the duty to inform their peoples.

I am Mother Earth.

The Infinite is raising my vibrational frequency, causing the temperature to rise and the magma to expand and rise, melting rock layers and causing earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and the birth of new submarine and continental shelf volcanoes.

As you have read, these new “climatic” events are produced by the SPIRITUAL FORCES of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air, set in motion by the PRIMARY CENTRAL SUN of the Pure Worlds. This is so.

They are cleansing the Earth's crust of the magnetism with which it was imbued by beings of Darkness and seduced over millennia, centuries, and years. This is so.

Humanity must know that the PRIMARY CENTRAL SUN receives information from my Core, from the inhabitants of the planet and from the beings of the Kingdoms of Nature, and transmits it to the spiritual Forces of Fire, Water, Earth, and Air.

You are free to accept or not accept that Fire, Water, Earth, and Air are SPIRITUAL FORCES. And they are at work. PEACE.
